

The dice Project

The dice Project was initiated in 1993 as a series of performances and compact discs showcasing women composers from North America and abroad.

The dice Project is produced by Elise Kermani and is released on the IshtarLab Recordings Label.

In the fall of 2002 IshtarLab Recordings launched the *dice*³ website, including an international community of women in new music and media arts from Japan, Germany, the UK, Austria, Italy and the USA.
